AFFORDABLE EXCELLENCE

Immigrant Avenues in March

On March 24, 2018, Centro Presente and the Boston Mayor's Office for Immigrant Advancement hosted free legal consultation clinic to support Temporary Protected Status (TPS) holders and other immigrants. Our team member Jesse Bless volunteered his time at the legal clinic and helped foreign nationals learn about the options they have to remain and thrive in the US.

All aboard!

Manifest Destiny Aboard

IA's #TruthTrain

The #TruthTrain rolls onward and upward for Immigrant Avenues. While Trump and his minions continue to spread false narratives and have placed a red light on reasonable reform, the light of immigration's benevolence remains bright green. Click here to read more!

"Three to Be"

Everyday Immigrant Avenues posts a daily "Three to Be" - three daily updates about current events in the immigration world, important facts, and information about who we are. Follow our social media pages to learn more!

There's an app for that!

IA in Your Pocket

March kicked off with the release of the IA mobile app, which is now available in the Google Play Store. Our app allows our clients to conveniently stay up to date with their immigration cases, contact their attorney, schedule appointments, and follow the latest in Immigration news.

BIG TAKEAWAY

This month, we spoke with dozens of TPS holders and saw first-hand how few of them were aware of their options for remaining lawfully in the US, including employment based solutions. Don't be afraid to speak to an attorney and explore the paths that may be available to you!

Who We Are

Immigrant Avenues SM and Las Avenidas del Inmigrante SM is an independent marketing and outsourcing company that connects documented and undocumented foreign nationals with nationally-recognized immigration attorneys. Our affiliated attorneys provide affordable excellence via free consultations, fair and flexible fees and money-back guarantees. Immigrant Avenues thus serves as a trusted resource for foreign nationals and immigration-related organizations in need of help preparing and executing a plan for themselves and/or their clients to survive and thrive in the United States.

Immigrant Avenues SM and Las Avenidas del Inmigrante SM advisors serve as a resource for an array of immigration-related needs including information, consultations and referrals for:

- Legal help through our network of experienced attorneys and through free legal resources.
- Connections to educational and charitable organizations
- Business relationships
- Credit and Banking Services

Shout out!

Our team would like to give the following special shout outs:

- Eddie K. - for being so persevering through the most extenuating circumstances and his pursuit of asylum!
- Adriana S. - new lawful permanent resident! Congrats!
- AILA New England for hosting an important and informative conference last month!

We are happy to help wonderful these and many other wonderful clients, and to be a part of fantastic organizations who work to ensure that the underserved can survive and thrive in the US!
